(International News Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—The convention opened at 10:35 a. m.
Scouting fight on the platform, presently to be presented to the convention by the committee on resolutions and platform, and also in anticipation of the first ballot for presidential nominee, the democratic hosts were early on the scene today and there was no need of cheer leaders to stir up enthusiasm.
The bald spot of Wm. Jennings Bryan, behind the Nebraska post, was the shining target for the eyes of the 11,000 delegates and friends, for this is the day of the great "breeze". Mr. Bryan is expected to go on the warpath, despite a sleepless night. In his pocket were several planks he will propose from the floor.

The battle for recognition of the Irish republic was on the program The first business was the reading of the majority report of the platform committee. Bryan demanded that he be given more than an hour on the floor to make his fight for his dry and profiteering planks. Jim Nugent, the New Jersey leader, wanted an hour for a plank dripping with dew. Carter Glass let it be known that he thought an hour would be long enough for him to defend the majority platform report. Miss Clar-O. Williams, of Tennessee, was being urged to take the floor and ask the convention to urge a plank favoring a department of education with a secretary in the cabinet.
Meanwhile, holders of tickets were threatening to storm the auditorium.
There are reports of a ticket scandal, as more than 5,000 tickets are out in excess of the number of seats in the auditorium.
It was announced that 3 hours of the convention's time would be given over to debate on the platform. Bryan was the hero of the convention from the moment he entered. As soon as his head was seen, the crowd, applauded and the delegates called his name.
Supporters of the candidacy of John W. Davis were up in arms over a report current here that Mr. Davis was a divorced man. R. P. Hobson stood for a moment with Bryan on the bridge wing and got some applause. At 10:25, the big redwood gavel gave the call for order. At that time rumors were flying thick and fast concerning the candidate's chances and whether or not balloting would be reached today. There were rumors of delegates forming to "hold McAdoo in check." Other rumors were that McAdoo had gained "more than 40 votes over night."

Rev. J. Sibley, of the Episcopal church of San Francisco, rendered the opening prayer.
Chairman Glass began reading the platform.
FOURTEEN NAMES PRESENTED
(International News Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—The democratic national convention called together an hour sooner than usual is thrashing out the final platform questions and there is great heat in the squabble. That story, however, was told when the committee formally presented its draft to the assembly and the high-voltage excitement of the delegates now concerns the personality of the presidential and vice presidential nominees. Presently the balloting will start.
Fourteen names are before the democrats, not counting that of Vice President Marshall, who declined to permit formal use of his name, but he will get Indiana's solid thirty on the first ballot. No man has the fight cinched. Any avowed candidate may be selected or all may be forced to stand back in favor of one unsung in-nomination oratory. The air is thick with claims and counter claims, but after two or more ballots have been taken, probably late this afternoon, sensible estimates can be made of the respective strength of the candidates.

Mr. McAdoo's position is about the same as during yesterday. He doesn't possess a two-thirds majority, but he is the leader of the pack. He will begin to show his actual strength on the third ballot. There are some sincere, and capable political observers who are convinced that he cannot secure the necessary two-thirds majority. The pack is fighting Mc-Adoo desperately. There is a concerted effort to put into the minds of the delegates thoughts concerning popular opinion regarding inherited office, and the term "Crown Prince" is now being handed about freely.
The coterie of Washington office holders, to the last man, however, has come out of hiding and are working like beavers for McAdoo.

CONDITION OF COTTON CROP IS MORE FAVORABLE

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, July 2.—The department of agriculture estimates the area of cotton in cultivation in the United States as 35,540,000 acres, as compared with 35,133,900 acres a year ago, an increase of 371,000 acres.
The condition of the crop on June 25 was 70.7 per cent of normal, and forecasts a yield per acre of 155.9 pounds and a total production of 11-450,000 bales.

AUTO DRIVER IS DROWNED IN THE TENNESSEE RIVER

A. S. Albritton, a prominent automobile dealer of Gadsden, was drowned in the Tennessee river last night when an automobile, driven by Albritton, ran into the Tennessee river near Guntersville, according to information received here this afternoon.
Albritton's car was approaching the river about 9 o'clock. It is said when his son, one of the three other occupants of the machine, warned his father that they were approaching the river. Mistaking the distance, however, Mr. Albritton is reported to have replied that the river was yet some distance away. In a few moments the auto dashed into the water. Three of the occupants escaped. The body of the driver had not been found late today.

City Hall Office To Close July 5

The office of City Clerk Henry Hartung will be closed on July 5, the holiday being observed by all departments of the city, with the exception of the fire and police. The office will be open Saturday night, however, for the convenience of citizens.

BOTH CITIES ARE INCLUDED IN SUM RAISED FOR RELIEF

Both Albany and Decatur are included in figures reported to Simon Gassenheimer, of Montgomery, state chairman by S. E. Ory, Albany, local chairman, but owing to the fact that the telegram was sent from the Albany telegraph office, that city was given credit for the entire total. The figures have been corrected, however, and accredited to both Decatur and Albany.
The above announcement was made today by Mr. Ory, to prevent misunderstanding of a telegram of congratulations received from Chairman Gassenheimer and possible confusion regarding the quotas of the Twin Cities.

Mr. Ory expressed his regret over the confusion. He was met on the street yesterday by a representative of The Daily, who, upon inquiring of the progress being made by the drive, was handed a copy of the telegram received from Mr. Gassenheimer by Mr. Ory without consideration of the fact that it might be misinterpreted.

The following exchange of telegrams was made public:
From Mr. Gassenheimer to Mr.
Ory: Best wishes for success in your local Jewish war relief drive. Montgomery today assumed quota of $75-000, 10,000 already subscribed. Enthusiasm high throughout the state.
Small town reporting donations in hundreds. Birmingham starts with 75 teams. Mobile starts with 200 workers. Hope you are pushing on toward success. Every effort should be made to reach a maximum. Appreciate cooperation. Wire collect how work is progressing.

From Mr. Ory to Mr. Gassenheimer: Organization perfected yesterday. First day raised $1,100. The support of non-Jews most gratifying. estimate will raise $2,000 in the drive.
Obtained fullest publicity possible.
No campaign at Hartselle and Athens, Ala. Have undertaken raise funds there. Would appreciate your authority for the step.
From Mr. Gassenheimer to Mr.
Ory: Congratulations on good work you are doing. Glad to know that non-Jews are giving you good support.
Your report now puts Albany in the lead up to noon today. Glad to have you embrace all the nearby towns. Appreciate your interest and cooperation. Best wishes.

"JEWISH RELIEF" TOTAL CLIMBING

COMMITTEES CONTINUE MEET WITH SUCCESS IN THE
TWIN CITIES

The total collections for the Jewish relief continued to climb higher today and several hundred dollars additional has been added. S. E. Ory, local chairman announced today. In a telegram from Montgomery yesterday Simon Gassenheimer, state director, congratulated Chairman Ory on the record being made here.

Today Hot, But Falls Short of Record of Year

Today is hot enough, but falls short of breaking the year's record, according to figures announced this afternoon by Mrs. A. H. Irons, government observer.
At one o'clock this afternoon the thermometer had gone to 93, 4 points short of the 97 record hung up two weeks ago. Yesterday the thermometer went to 90 and last night the minimum point reached was 72.

TWIN CITIES OPPOSE NEW RATE SCHEDULE

TIDWELL TO WAGE ALBANY'S BATTLE ON WATER RATES

Albany's fight against the proposed increases in water rates, sought by the Alabama Water company, will be conducted before the public service commission Monday by Tennis Tidwell, city attorney. The preliminary plans for the fight on the proposed schedule of water charges were discussed at a special meeting of the council last night.

It was understood today that members of the council are not entirely adverse to permitting some increase in water rates here, but are opposed to the increase asked by the water company. The council, several days ago, decided to allow the petition for increase to go before the public service commission, without any action by the council on the petition for increase filed with the city fathers.
Taking the tip, the water company immediately filed its request with the state commission and the case was set for hearing on July 5.

Other city officials, in addition to City Attorney Tidwell, are considering making the trip to Montgomery to appear before the commission, it is said.

BOARD OF HEALTH IS A LEGAL BODY

SUPREME COURT SUSTAINS DE-CISION OF THE LOWER ALA-BAMA COURTS

The state board of health, of which the Morgan County board of health is a part, is a legal body and Dr.
W. B. Welch, state health officer and R. L. Bradley, state treasurer, will not be prevented from expending certain funds provided by the state legislature for the promotion and maintenance of public health, according to a decision of the Alabama supreme court.

The state's highest court also refused to stay the removal order, changing the location of the medical department of the University of Alabama from Mobile to Tuscaloosa. The court did not permit a rehearing on the decision rendering invalid the state income tax law.

ESSEX SHOWS REMARKABLE POWER IN SERIES OF STUNTS

Car Driven by Frank Harris Develops Speed and Climbs Hills.

The flexible Essex yesterday afternoon showed its remarkable motor power in the first of a series of stunts arranged for "Essex Week" by the Harris Motors company.
A car driven by Frank Harris, from a standing start on a corner of a local street, developed 45 miles an hour in the first block. Going back to the same starting place, the car developed 30 miles an hour in the first block in low.

Just to show the Essex is not built primarily for speed, Mr. Harris drove to the Bank street ferry landing and then pulled the hill from the landing, via the ferry road, to the top of Bank street in high gear. The Vine street hill, from the Decatur city hall to Bank street was pulled in high at 2 miles an hour. En route to Albany again to tackle other hills, Mr.
Harris demonstrated how, with the engine cut off, the starter will start the Essex in high gear.

DECATUR ALSO TO RESIST INCREASE COMPANY ASKED

The city of Decatur will also fight the increased water rates sought by the Alabama Water Company. The decision to fight the increased schedule was made at a regular meeting of the council last night. S. A. Lynne, city attorney and Mayor James A.
Nelson will go to Montgomery to appear before the public service commission when the case is called.
Mayor Nelson also was given authority to appoint a committee of citizens to go to the capital Monday.
L. E. McGregor and a representative of a Nashville motor company appeared before the council last night in regard to the proposed purchase by the city of a motor truck for use of the city sanitary department. The matter was taken under advisement.

TRAVELLERS BACK FROM CONVENTION, PUBLICITY IS GIVEN THE ENTIRE STATE

Members T. P. A. Contingent Return From National Convention at Portland.

CHORUS OF 29 SINGS PRAISES OF ALABAMA

Attractions of Alabam' Told in Eighteen States by Delegates.

Members of the North Alabama contingent of delegates, to the Travellers Protective Association's national convention at Portland, Ore., have returned to their homes. E. L. Raney, of Albany-Decatur arrived home late yesterday, while J. F. Lovin stopped in Kansas City to visit relatives. J.
L. Bartee, of Huntsville and Misses Tommy and Louise Hall, of Gurley, passed through here on route home.
The praises of Alabama were sung in eighteen states, a chorus of 29 voices rendering ballads telling of the attractions of the state. Publicity pamphlets also were distributed in a number of the smallest cities of the west, Alabama delegates personally invited residents to come to Alabama.

The T. P. A. party from North Alabama left here on a special pullman with other delegates. The pullman was attached to the T. P. A. special train at Chicago and many interesting points were visited on the tour westward.

At Portland the visitors were royally entertained, the Rose Festival, being one of the features attracting much interest. Between 1200 and 1500 delegates attended the convention.

The first stop made after leaving here was at Louisville, Ky., where advertising was distributed. One of the songs of the Alabama crowd was:

Alabama
(Tune—"Darin Nellie Gray") Down in Alabama land
You will find a happy band Of the best and bravest folks you ever saw.
They will take your time and money,
Steal your wife and sweethearts, too,
But will leave for you your mother-in-law.
Oh! that fair old state of mine,
With its people and its climate,
With its cotton, corn, steel and iron ore,
It extends to you a welcome From the purest hearts of gold To come and stay forever more.

MORE PRAISE IS GIVEN TO 'ISAIAH'

TREATMENT GIVEN HIS GRANDSON

More praise for Brother Isaiah is contained in the following letter received today by The Daily:
To the Albany-Decatur Daily: Myself and wife have just returned from New Orleans, where we went to carry out little grandson for treatment for blindness and got great results. It sure is a miracle the great things done by Brother Isaiah. We saw five people healed while we were there and our baby made six, so it sure is a great work through our Lord. It is true I talked to men who told me they had not seen and were blind, until Brother Isaiah treated them. I talked to a man who told me he had not heard a word in 40 years and that he could hear now.

THE FIRST YEAR OF PROHIBITION

The first anniversary of nationwide prohibition was celebrated on July 1, with but few mourners at the grave of the late John Barleycorn. Smiles, rather than tears, were the order of the day, for not only have the people accepted aridity with a good grace but have admitted, almost without exception, that it is a blessing of the supreme kind. The passing of the twelve-month period demonstrated that liquor is neither an asset nor a necessity.

It has been proven that mankind is happier, healthier and wealthier when removed from this deadening curse, which warps the finances, wrecks many homes, impairs brilliant futures, blights the lives of children, brings sorrow to countless women, destroys souls and intellects and gives nothing in return. Since the nation has been sane and sober it has prospered to a marked extent. There are few if any business men who would welcome a return of the old conditions. Prohibition has become something more than a moral issue, it has become a financial issue.

Perhaps, from the Alabama standpoint, the most remarkable evidence yet presented in behalf of temperance is that given by the Birmingham Age-Herald, a newspaper that once ably defended the Demon Rum. It has seen the benefits of abstinence, and in an editorial today gives public testimony to the fact. The editorial is as follows:

John F. Kramer, head of the prohibition enforcement division, says prohibition has been a success. It has.

There are still thousands of saloons in America, the "moonshiners" flourish in space and millions of people who acquired the liquor habit before the Eighteenth amendment and the Volstead enforcement act went into effect, still contrive to get whisky, but the cordon about John Barleycorn is tightening every day.

SHERIFF'S SALE

By Virtue of Execution Fieri Facias issued out of the Clerk's office of the Circuit Court of Morgan County, and State of Alabama, and to me directed, whereby I am commanded to make the amount of a certain judgment recently obtained against M. E. Roden out of the goods, chattels, lands and tenements of the said M. E. Roden I have levied on the following property, to-wit:

Bounded on the North by the Hartelle and Decatur pike; on West by C. L. Orr land; on South by Puckett land and on East by Decatur and Jasper Road and Puckett land, being 52 acres and known as the Roden land at Danville, Alabama.

Therefore, according to said command, I shall expose to sale, at Public Auction, all the right, title, and interest of the above-named M. E. Roden in and to the above-described property, on the 26 day of July 1920 during the legal hours of sale, at the Court House in Decatur, Alabama.

Dated at Decatur, Ala., this 24 day of July, 1920.
J. V. MAY,
Sheriff Morgan County Ala.
June 25, July 2-9

The irreconcilable "wets" will continue to violate the law and drink more or less, until they die. A new generation is coming on which will grow up without the taste for liquor, to which the saloon will be an unknown quantity. When the old order ceases to be even a memory this country will be bone-dry in fact as well as in theory.

Already the price of red liquor is prohibitive. Only the rich can afford to buy it. Even "moonshine" is no longer cheap, and there is a considerable part of the population which is afraid of being poisoned and being unable to pay for whisky that it is at least not deadly, is doing without.

All of these factors are cutting down the consumption of liquor and hastening the day when whisky, good or bad, will no longer be sold.

Voice of the People

Mr. Editor:

After having read the notice in your paper a few days ago that all ex-service men must pay street tax this year, I take this means of asking, not only the officials of the city, but the citizens in general if the ex-service men are getting a square deal at home. If they are getting a square deal, why is it that the first men to arrive home was shown more appreciation than we who were out of luck and couldn't get home. Is it giving the man who was in the service overseas a year ago a square deal? Is it right to make him pay street tax this year while the ones who returned ahead of him was exempted? In other words, should the man that served his country for one year be entitled to more appreciation than the man that served two years? It is a fact that when the first men returned patriotism was at its height, but if patriotism prompted the city officials to exempt them from street tax for a year, then why should not the same patriotism prompt them to exempt the last ones that returned?

The only answer I have been given is that city needs the money. Did the city not need the money when they exempted the other men?

You will please understand that it is not the $2.50 that I am objecting to paying, but the principal of the matter.

I needed the money when I was called upon to give up my position and serve my country, but I considered that my country came first and I know that the other men looked at it in the same manner. I am willing to give the city the $2.50 and more if they need it, but at the same time, I think they should act square in the matter.

Did not the men that served two years sacrifice just as much as the men that served one year? Everyone can answer this question. Then, I ask the city officials if they are not entitled to just as much appreciation?

If you have space to print this letter it will be very much appreciated by a citizen and an ex-service man who did over two years and half for his country, of which twenty-two months he was overseas.

Very truly yours,
D. B. WHITSON,
An Ex-Service Man.

Over fifty years ago a young physician practiced widely in a rural district and became famous for his uniform success in the curing of disease. This was Dr. Pierce, who afterwards established himself in Buffalo, N. Y., and placed one of his prescriptions, which he called "Golden Medical Discovery," in the drug stores of the United States so that the public could easily obtain this very remarkable tonic, corrective and blood-maker. Dr. Pierce manufactured this "Discovery" from roots and barks—a corrective remedy, the ingredients of which nature had put in the fields and forests, for keeping us healthy. Few folks or families now living have not at sometime or other used this "Golden Medical Discovery" for the stomach, liver and heart. Over twenty-four million bottles of this tonic and blood remedy have been sold in this country.

THE BUTTERFLY

On the brilliant wings you pass the hours Lightly poised, now here, now there;
Taking sweetness from each flower,
Living on a magic fare.

As I watch you softly swinging, Through the drowsy Summer day; Watch you lightly, lightly winging While I sigh my heart away.

Would that I possessed your power Never troubled, gay and free; Give me of your fairy dower,
And my heart shall be your fee.

If I held a flowery treasure, That would make you rest with me;
In my garden find your pleasure, Butterfly—could that e'er be?

Misses Florence Ezell, of Belle Green and Sarah Francis Dillard, of Montgomery, are the guests of Miss Gladys Garrison.

RECEPTION FOR BRIDE

Mrs. J. H. Johnson, a June bride was the inspiration for a beautifully planned reception tendered her yesterday by Mrs. S. D. Johnson at her home, 218 East Walnut street. The color motif, green and yellow, was carried out in detail through the entire reception suite, black eyed susans, daisies, and sun flowers being used in artistic profusion with ferns and Jackson vine. The dining table was covered with a cluny luncheon cloth and centered by a tulle tied basket of yellow daisies. Yellow tapers in cut glass and mahogany candle stick cast their soft glow over the scene. From a prettily decorated punch bowl on the front veranda, Ethel and Margaret Harrison served punch to the guests as they arrived. Mrs. A. J.
Harris greeted the guests at the door and Mrs. L. J. Ramage introduced them to the receiving line in the living room. Mrs. T. V. Harrison, Mrs.
C. B. Sanders, Misses Eleanor Harrison and Gertrude Johnson received with Mrs. S. D. Johnson and Mrs. J.
H. Johnson.

Mrs. Foster Pointer invited the guests to the dining room where Mesdames Clyde Hendrix, D. A. Draper, W. W. Callahan and W. F. Boswell served mints and ices.

Mrs. J. H. Johnson wore her wedding gown of white net with Baronette satin trimmings. Mrs. S. D.
Johnson was gracious in lavender voile. Mrs. Harrison was in cream voile. Mrs. Sanders wore an afternoon gown of black spangled net Misses Harrison and Johnson wore pink and green organdie frocks.
About two hundred friends called between the hours of four and six.

Repair The Wear

Hard Work Often Breaks Down a Person's Health and Creates a Need for Ziron Iron Tonic.

MEN and women who do hard labor, such as building, farming or housekeeping, and those who do exhaustive brain work of various kinds, often feel the need of something to help renew faded forces and tone up the system.

To help repair the wear caused by over-work, to gain renewed strength and energy, many have obtained good results from taking Ziron Iron Tonic.
Ziron is a perfected preparation of pure medicinal iron salts, combined with other valuable strength-giving tonic ingredients, which are recommended by leading physicians.

Mr. H. B. Converse, of McEwen, Tenn., writes: "I had been working very hard, and was getting weak and run-down from hard work. When I commenced taking Ziron, in a few days I felt stronger, and now I have taken two bottles I feel as strong as ever, although I have kept at work all the time."

You cannot lose anything by giving Ziron a trial, but very likely will gain much.

Your druggist will sell you the first bottle on a money-back guarantee.

A Real Family Fourth

Wouldn't it be delightful to spend the Fourth in the country this year? It comes on Sunday and a picnic would be just the thing.

Of course the kiddies want their fire works, and they can be taken along very easily. Then, in addition to the noisy fun, there will be the cool, restful enjoyment of a fine picnic supper in the open.

Valier's Dainty Flour

will do its share to make it unusually enjoyable.
Milled by a special slow process from the finest soft winter wheat grown, (secured by the payment of a fine baking.

Of course such flour is slightly higher priced in the sack, yet in the long run it is economical. It gives better, more uniformly successful results and with Germany, and we condemn the republican party for its refusal to ratify the treaty merely because it was the product of a democratic statesman. We endorse the President's views of our international obligations and his firm stand against reservations designed to cut to pieces the vital provisions of the peace treaty and we commend the democrats in congress for voting against the resolution for separate peace which would disgrace the nation."

"During the war President Wilson conceived the very broadest conception of liberal Americanism, there was no symptom of party bias."

"We express to the soldiers and sailors of America the admiration of their fellow countrymen and commend the patriotic men and women who substantiated the efforts of their government and contributed to the brilliant administrative success. A review of the democratic party during the administration of Woodrow Wilson presents a chapter of substantial achievement unsurpassed in the history of the republic."

Tax revision—"We advocate tax reform and a searching revision of the war revenue act to fit peace conditions."

Public Economy—"Claiming to have affected great economies in government expenditures, the republican party cannot show the reduction of one dollar of taxation as the result of this false pretense. In contrast, the last democratic congress enacted legislation reducing taxes from $8-

High cost of living—"The high cost of living and the depreciation of bond values are due primarily to the war itself, to necessary expenditures, to private extravagance and world shortage of capital; to inflation of foreign currency and conscienceless profiteering. The simple truth is that the high cost of living can only be remedied by increased production."

"We pledge the democratic party to a policy of strict economy in government expenditures, and to the enactment of legislation required to bring profiteers before the bar of justice."

Tariff—"We affirm the position of the democratic party in favor of a tariff for revenue only."

Labor and industry—"The democratic party is now, as ever, the firm friend of honest labor and the promoter of progressive industry. Those who labor have rights and the national security and safety depend upon a just recognition of those rights. Labor as well as capital is entitled to adequate compensation. Each has the right of organization, of collective bargaining and of speaking through representatives of their own selection. Neither should at any time or in any circumstances take action that will put in jeopardy the public welfare."

Woman suffrage—"We endorse the nineteenth amendment granting equal suffrage to women."

Disabled soldiers—"The federal government should treat with the utmost consideration every disabled soldier, sailor and marine of the world war, whether his disability be due to wounds received in action or health impaired in service, and for the dependents of the brave who died in line of duty the government's tenderest concern and richest bounty should be their accittal."

"We pledge the party to the enactment of soldiers settlement and home aid legislation."

Ireland—"Within the limitations of international comity this convention repeats its several previous expressions of sympathy of the democratic party for the aspirations of Ireland for self-government."

Postal employees—"The efficiency of the post office department has been vindicated against a malicious and designing assault on the efficiency of this organization. The democratic party has always favored and will continue to favor the fair and just treatment of all federal employees."

PLATFORM COMPLETED
(International News Service)
SAN FRANCISCO, July 2.—The democratic platform of 1920 was completed in the early hours of this morning by the committee on resolutions and was submitted to the convention when it met at 10 a. m. Submission of the platform to the full convention was the signal for a floor fight against its adoption, lead by Wm Jennings Bryan, whose ideas were rejected by the committee in the closing hours. A fight is certain to be lead by Bryan over the league of nations and wet and dry issues, and a fight on the Irish plank may also be directed from the floor. Bryan said when he left the auditorium after midnight that he probably would offer "five or six amendments" and speak for their adoption. The bone dry plank upholding the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead enforcement act was voted down by the committee. A plank which favored modification of the Volstead act so as to permit light wines and beers was also voted down, and the platform to be submitted today was declared by committee members to contain no reference at all to the liquor question. The platform fight in the committee, one of the most bitter in years, ended with many of the members exhausted from four days and nights of almost ceaseless wrangling over the various planks. Senator Carter Glass, chairman of the committee, when asked if the committee had adjourned sine die replied: "Yes; more than sine die."

How Old Is John?

What is the Truth about Old Uncle John Shell, of Greasy Creek, Kentucky? Is He "The Oldest Living Man" or Only a Youngster of 95 to 100 Summers?

INVESTIGATOR'S REPORT

THE age-old puzzle, "How old is Ann," is now put into the shade by the question lately agitated in the public press as to "How old is John?"

Old "Uncle" Johnny Shell, the Kentucky mountaineer, who paid a visit to the Kentucky State Fair at Louisville last fall, has become famous overnight as a result of this controversy.

Such papers as the "New York Herald", the "Literary Digest", and other periodicals of national circulation, have printed his picture, with comments on the question at issue.

So much interest has been shown in the matter, that a special investigator was sent to Greasy Creek, Kentucky, by The Chattanooga Medicine Company (whose medicine—Thedford's Black-Draught Liver Medicine—had been used in the Shell family for many years) in order to get more information on the subject.

The investigator's report is given on another column of this page. The results of this investigation seem to show, on the testimony of friends and neighbors, that John Shell is about 112 years old, that his health is good for a man of his age, and that his mind is clearer than that of the average centenarian.

A statement from his grandson (A. H. Shell) regarding the use of Thedford's Black-Draught, by John Shell himself, is given at the foot of this page.

The picture shows Uncle John Shell's home at Greasy Creek, Kentucky, where he has lived for 50 years. His first wife died here, at the age of 107 years.

FACTS vs. FICTION

JOHNSHELL is without doubt the most remarkable centenarian I have seen, and he is about the eighth I have met," says our investigator. "His memory is wonderful. The nearest that he and his family can come to his age is 112 years. His family has never claimed him to be over that age. The tax records that were burned in the court house at Harlan gave the date of his birth, as near as they could make it out, as September, 1808. He also counts from the age of his first wife, who died at the age of 107.

"John Shell cannot read or write, but for many years he was an expert maker of flint-lock rifles. John Shell rifles, marked with his private mark just behind the lock, are prized by collectors.

"In order to get a consensus of opinion as to his probable age, I thought it best to secure statements and affidavits from members of the family and neighbors who have known him for many years. I therefore secured such statements from Judge A. B. Cornett, T. H. Howard, attorney-at-law, and W. B. Kelly, ex-United States Marshal, and others. These are among the most substantial and reliable men of Kentucky."

Extracts from their statements are given below.

Over 100, Says W. B. Kelly

I have known "Uncle" Johnny Shell for years, in fact, stayed with him a good deal, about 16 years ago. From the age Mr. Shell claimed to be, when I stayed with him, and the time that has elapsed since, I would judge him to be a good deal over 100 years old.

Shell Family Record Says 112

My Aunt, Mrs. Maria Garrison, says that the date in her Bible, containing grandpa's age, was September 15, 1808. I have every reason to believe that she speaks the truth. My father, W. C. Shell, says this is the truth so far as he has ever known; also my uncle, A. B. Shell.

G. W. HOWARD, County Court Clerk.

At Least 110, Says T. S. Ward

I will be 81 years old the 10th of July, 1920. I was born and raised in Harlan County, Kentucky. In 1863 I met Johnny Shell, who was called "Uncle Johnny" then. I was riding the Confederate army and met "Uncle Johnny". He was 100 old then for service in the Civil war. I am satisfied he is at least 110 years old, as he is a much older man than I am. Most every one in Harlan County knows me and will take my word for anything I say. I would not make a statement unless I believed it to be true.

T. S. WARD.

M. G. SMITH, Notary Public, Harlan Co., Ky.

Attorney Howard Says Over 100

In different conversations with John Shell, he often told about coming to Kentucky with his father in the summer of 1816, and that they camped where the town of Harlan, Ky., is now located, and that at that time he was 12 years old. In abstracting old land papers I found one where an entry was made by S. Shell (John's father) in the year 1816, in the neighborhood where he now lives. I have every reason to believe John Shell is a good deal over 100 years old.

T. H. HOWARD, Attorney at Law.

M. G. SMITH, Notary Public, Harlan Co., Ky.

Over 100 and an Honest Man

I have known Johnny Shell for about 50 years. I have told him goods for 40 years. W. B. Kelly told of a man Smith. He and Shell grew up together, about the same age. If Smith had lived he would be a little over a hundred now. Richard Wilson, who was raised a few miles from Shell, says Shell has turned 100. I talked to Shell last year. He knew me and talked to me as intelligently as I ever heard him. I have always found John Shell an honest man.

S. C. HOWARD.

Judge Cornett Says All of 108

I have known "Uncle Johnny" Shell for 30 or more years. I have known of him as an old, old man. From all reports from the few who lived here when he said he came here at the age of about 12, he is now at least 108 years old, and I believe older. I have talked with him in the last year and he seemed to be intelligent and just as rational as I ever saw him.

(Judge) A. B. CORNETT, Harlan, Ky.

"Older Than My Mother, 104"

I have known "Uncle Johnny" Shell all my life. I am almost 68. I would place his age at 104. Johnny Shell was older than my mother, and she would have been 104, had she not died long ago.

F. G. LEWIS.

In justice to John Shell and his family, it should be said that neither he nor they have ever claimed the extreme old age that was given in some of the reports published in the daily press. A story of the kind grows in the telling, and the desire for something startling to make good reading is no doubt the cause for the interesting fiction (founded on fact) that has been published about old "Uncle" Johnny Shell.

Facts, however, in many cases, are just as interesting as fiction, and we have endeavored in this article to give the facts as we have been able to find them.

Was thought by some to be 131 years old, but a full investigation does not disclose any reliable records going back so far.

Statement by John Shell's Grandson

A. H. Shell, aged 45, of Chappell, Kentucky, grandson of John Shell, whose picture is shown in the group at top of this page, authorized publication of the following statement:

"My grandfather has lived to a remarkable age. When a young man, he took very little medicine. Of late years he has needed medicine and my wife has looked after it for him. . . . He needed something as a laxative and to keep his liver acting, so she sends to the store for and makes him a tea from that and it keeps him in splendid shape."

LOCAL DELEGATE TO LABOR MEETING SCORES BIG HIT

BY J. C. SMITH

Of the more than 600 delegates to the convention in Montreal, Canada, Albany, Ala. had only one but that one placed on record the progressive spirit of Albany's working men and the millions of toilers of all North American will ever hereafter look to Albany as one of the coming progressive cities of the South.

From the official minutes of the Montreal convention we have the following "Report of Committee on State Bodies" by Delegate Lawson: Resolution N. 39-bp Delegate J. E. Blair, Albany-Decatur Central Labor Union of Albany, Ala., U. S. A.

"Resolved: That the American Federation of Labor in convention assembled at Montreal, Can., June, 1920 go on record as favoring the widest and fullest publicity as regards the production of prices of staple commodities offered for sale."

The author of this resolution appeared before the committee and explained that the purpose of the resolution was to secure the enactment of a law in the various states compelling publicity as to the actual cost of manufactured articles. With this intent, your committee is in full accord, and would recommend that all state federations of labor be requested to advocate and urge the passage of such legislation. Your committee desires to call attention to the fact that this subject was presented to the Republican National Convention by the committee representing the Federation and is contained in their report of the committee was adopted. Mr. Gompers and others will present this same demand to the Democratic National Convention now assembled in California.

Mr. Blair is an able writer and the resolution offered by him is in harmony with the progressive spirit of our country and offers another solution of aiding the Government in curbing the "profiteers."

Preserving Spider Webs. Naturalists employ an ingenious method in order to preserve the web of the spider. The webs are first sprayed with a thin solution of artists' shellac and then, if of the ordinary geometric form, they are pressed carefully against a glass plate, the supporting threads of the web being severed. After the shellac solution has dried the plates carrying the webs are stored in a cabinet for later use in scientific work.
